Gentlemen:

This is pursuant to the provisions of the Computer Security Act of 1987 and the OMB Guidance for the Preparation and Submission of Security Plans for Federal Computer Systems Containing Sensitive Information which was issued on 25 May 1988.

Pursuant to the provisions of that Act, including the exceptions provided for those systems within the scope of 44 USC Section 3502(2) and for systems which are protected at all times by procedures established for the protection of classified information, please be advised that the Central Intelligence Agency maintains no systems subject to the reporting and other requirements of the Act.

If there should be any questions, please do not hesitate to contact
[redacted] of my management staff on [redacted] at any time.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Edward J. Maloney
Director of Information Technology
